The two platforms are available to more than 10,500 solicitors and over 4,000 funeral directors in England and Wales and list 350+ charitable organisations and causes who have decided to advertise to solicitors and their clients.

The Directory is mailed to the above audience and the website is promoted through multiple Gazette digital channels. The legacy market is worth more than £3billion a year, so the Directory gives your charity the best chance to promote your organisation for potential charitable donations.
